

Securities Regulation and Public Offerings

Parr Brown attorneys advise clients in connection with registration, reporting, and compliance matters under federal and state securities laws and regulations. Our lawyers represent companies and underwriters in public and private offerings of debt and equity securities under the Securities Act of 1933, with the preparation of periodic reports, proxy materials and related disclosures under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and in compliance with listing and reporting obligations of national stock exchanges and quotation systems.

We counsel companies with respect to preferred stock financings, investor rights, and exit transactions. We have strong experience in corporate governance, regulatory compliance, and second-generation Sarbanes-Oxley initiatives.

Contact A Leading Securities Attorney

We're looking forward to helping you resolve any aspect of your company's securities legal needs. For immediate assistance or more information regarding your legal concerns, complete this form or reach out to any of the experienced securities regulation and public offering lawyers shown below today.