Specialized Business Attorneys To Better Serve You

Our full range of corporate representation includes public, private and bank financing, corporate compliance, reporting, and governance programs. We have also served as counsel to boards of directors and executives regarding matters such as corporate record-keeping, codes of ethics, and crisis management. Furthermore, we frequently develop and resolve commercial contracts utilizing the most efficient course of action available, whether that be arbitration, mediation or litigation. The firm also advises clients on all aspects of intellectual property, environmental, employment, and real estate services. Regarding real estate services, we assist clients with leasing, sales, purchases, development, and financing.

Business Lawyers Emphasizing Personal Connections

A cornerstone of Parr Brown's legal philosophy has always been that taking the time to invest in a strong relationship with each client is foundational to achieving successful outcomes. Whether your company currently employs legal personnel or not, our attorneys are available to provide additional expertise and resources.
