

Insurance and Bad Faith

We are committed to maximizing client insurance coverage and to minimizing client losses within commercial litigation proceedings. When appropriate, our bad faith attorneys pursue favorable settlements out of court, but we do not hesitate to go to trial if it is in the client's best interest. Our bad faith attorneys have a significant trial, arbitration, and mediation experience representing the insurance industry and have been retained as a consultant or experts by insurers on coverage issues.

Parr Brown provides representation for insurers on issues related to coverage, co-insurance, and reinsurance disputes, including bad faith claims or improper claims handling. Our team of experienced bad faith lawyers handles cases that include property and casualty insurance fraud and business interruption claims, first-party coverage and property insurance litigation cases, third-party personal injury, and property damage liability cases. Coverage commercial litigation relates to textual issues such as the proper interpretation of policy definitions, exclusions, and warranties.

The types of actions for which we have extensive experience include:

- Insurance policy interpretation, insurance coverage, and reinsurance disputes, including bad faith claims or improper claims handling.
- Comprehensive general liability insurance claims.
- Commercial litigation related to issues such as interpretation of policy definitions, exclusions, and warranties.
- Errors and omissions.
- Personal injury caused by an automobile accident, fire, catastrophe, premises liability, and professional malpractice.
- Product liability defense litigation.
- Financial institution fidelity.
- Environmental and toxic tort coverage claims.
- Directors and officers liability insurance matters.
- Property and casualty insurance fraud.
- Construction defect and building claims.
- Business interruption claims.
- Title insurance and escrow claims, including representation of most major underwriters as well as agents and insureds.

- Client insurance program evaluation and advice regarding potential areas for which coverage should be secured.

Contact A Leading Insurance and Bad Faith Attorney

We're looking forward to helping you resolve any aspect of your insurance legal needs. For immediate assistance or more information regarding your Utah insurance legal concerns, complete this form or reach out to any of the experienced insurance and bad faith lawyers shown below today.