Meg A. Krivanec

Associate

Meg Krivanec is a member of the Business and Finance practice group with an emphasis on mergers and acquisitions, securities law compliance, debt financing transactions, business organization and structuring, and corporate governance. Her practice includes a broad range of corporate counseling, including mergers and acquisitions, private equity financings, and private and public offerings of equity and debt securities. Meg has experience in all aspects of merger and acquisition transactions, including purchase agreement drafting and negotiation, due diligence investigations and disclosure schedule preparation, ancillary agreement drafting and transaction closings.

Prior to joining Parr Brown, Meg was an associate at Richards Layton & Finger, PA, in Wilmington, Delaware, where she focused on advising clients on transactions and corporate governance matters implicating the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and the related common law of fiduciary duties.
