

Nathanael D. Paynter

Shareholder

Nathanael Paynter is a member of the firm’s Corporate group, focusing on business formation, mergers and acquisitions, securities as well as media and First Amendment Law.

Mr. Paynter received his J.D. from The University of Chicago Law School in 2012 where he was a Joseph E. Green Scholar and served as Executive Editor for The University of Chicago Legal Forum. He was a recipient of the Sidley Austin Prize-Excellence in Brief Writing in the Bigelow Moot Court Competition and the Henry Beale Prize-Most Outstanding Written Work in Legal-writing section. While in law school, Mr. Paynter worked as legal intern with the Microsoft Corporation in 2010 and as a summer associate with Baker Botts and Parr Brown in 2011.

He received his Bachelor of Arts in History from Brigham Young University in 2009 where he held numerous honors. Mr. Paynter is fluent in Spanish.

Mr. Paynter has been continually recognized by Utah Business magazine as one of Utah’s Legal Elite for mergers and acquisitions and business & corporate law.

Publications and Speaking Engagements:

- Flexibility and public participation: Refining the APA Good Cause Exception
The University of Chicago Legal Forum

CONTACT INFORMATION

Direct: 801-257-7973

Email: npaynter@parrbrown.com

LANGUAGE

- Spanish

PRACTICE AREAS

- Business and Finance
- Corporate Structure, Organizations and Governance
- Mergers, Acquisitions, and Divestitures
- Securities Regulation and Public Offerings
- Media and First Amendment

EDUCATION

- 2012, J.D., The University of Chicago Law School, Joseph E. Green Scholar, Editor, The University of Chicago Legal Forum

- 2009, B.A., History, Brigham Young

University

BAR ADMISSIONS

▶ 2012, Utah

parrbrown.com