

Tax Litigation

Parr Brown provides legal counsel with respect to disputes between taxpayers and the Internal Revenue Service, Utah State Tax Commission, and other local taxing authorities. Parr Brown tax litigation attorneys can assist taxpayers at all stages of administrative action, beginning with tax audits through formal administrative hearings and appeals. Parr Brown tax attorneys also represent clients in litigation of tax disputes before the United States Tax Court, federal district courts, and United States Courts of Appeal. Our tax litigation attorneys have substantive expertise with complex tax issues in all areas of federal corporate, partnership, trust, gift and estate, individual taxation, state and local income taxes, property taxes, and sales taxes.

Representative Tax Litigation Services:

- Defending tax shelter investors against the imposition of taxes and penalties related to their investments.
- Defending corporations in tax audits and subsequent tax court litigation to defend income recognition issues and expenses related to business and investment activities.
- Defending tax audits and tax litigation regarding gift and estate tax issues.
- Assisting property owners in appealing property tax valuations and assessments.
- Structuring payment plans offer a compromise, innocent spouse relief, and other tax workouts.

Why Hire A Tax Litigation Attorney?

Life can present you with a myriad of tax situations. When this happens, you'll want to have an experienced tax litigation attorney on your side. Our team of experienced tax attorneys at Parr Brown is ready to help you through every step of the process. No matter the tax issue, from negotiating with the IRS to representing you in court, our tax litigation attorneys have the experience needed to back your case.

Contact A Leading Tax Litigation Attorney

Here at Parr Brown, we offer a range of tax services and are looking forward to helping you resolve any aspect of your tax issues. For immediate assistance, or for more information regarding your legal concerns, use the form below to reach out to one of our experienced tax attorneys or contact us.

